9. Anti-Doping policy – Neville Smythe

The IGF director proposes the following motion:

That the Australian Go Association accepts and endorses the International Go Federation Anti-Drug Policy and Regulations, as published at http://intergofed.org/members_documents/index.html and requires compliance with these Regulations by players selected, by the AGA, to represent Australia in events organised by the International Go Federation.

10. Selection of Korean Prime Minister's Cup (KPMC) representative – David Ormerod

The Committee proposes following amendment to the rules governing the Korean Ambassador's Cup (KAC):

- a. The player in the top section of the KAC tournament, who is an Australian citizen, with the highest number of Representative Points (after adding points awarded for the KAC) shall normally be selected to represent Australia at the following KPMC.
- b. If there is one or more eligible KAC participant(s) within 50 Representative Points of this player, then a play-off shall be held to determine the selection.
- c. If the selected player does not accept selection or subsequently cannot attend the KPMC, the AGA Committee will normally select the Australian player with the next highest number of Representative Points; but the Committee may at its discretion select any AGA member.

11. Honorary National Coach – David Ormerod

Motion to appoint Mr Younggil An (8 dan) as Honorary National Coach.

12. Life Memberships – John Hardy
